RSJ Mid-Year Review

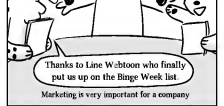

Hello RSJ readers, old and new!

Thanks for joining our mid-year review!

Thanks to Line Webtoon who finally put us up on the Binge Week list.

Marketing is very important for a company

The relationship mini series is having great feedback!

But not everyone
liked it though...

I think it's okay.

It's impossible to make everyone happy.

I'd say let's try something else.

Something similar to the "National Animals" series...

...how about "National Food"?

My stomach agrees

The point of this mid-year review is not about additional work, but rather about...

We've all worked hard these months....

...so how about an overseas company vacation?

I wanna to go South Korea!!

land of Kpop Cosmestics and webtoons!

underneath palm trees watching the sunset.

I'd prefer Florence for a vacation.

Beautiful museums and libraries

Who'd want to go to libraries for a vacation?

You don't know how to relax and enjoy life!

You don't know how to appreciate architecture and literature.

I agree we should go somewhere tropical.

I want to have a nice swim

Anna would love to play at the beach too.

My son wanna go to the beach too.

Water sports!

I'm fine with anywhere

Aww come on!

Why don't you guys choose
South Korea?

I'll go with you

I personally prefer Japan.
but all places are good places.

as long as I get some zen time

Indonesia?

Okinawa...?

Uh, guys, actually... we don't have a choice.

The reason we are going on vacation is because our author is going on one.

Which is...

BAH

It's a tropical island so we're still good!

Woohoo!!

No choice?

I wish you never asked us...

See? I told you
a tropical vacation is the best!

By the way Bonnie should take more vacations so we can work less!

Let's see how we're gonna plan the RSJ Bali trip...
